SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION DEADLINE IS May 11, 2022. To be considered for a scholarship, you must submit a completed scholarship application, including: this scholarship application, with your written statement and your $25 application deposit. Incomplete applications will not be evaluated.

Scholarship Application Deposit: $25 (applies toward the registration fee if you attend, will be refunded if you do not receive a scholarship and choose not to attend.) Make check payable to: NH Wildlife Trust. If you are not selected for a scholarship, you will receive a refund of your deposit. You can still register for the weekend and pay the full cost.

Notification: Scholarship applicants will receive communication regarding their status by May 25, 2022. If you decide not to attend for any reason, please notify us by July 1, 2022.

IMPORTANT: You must still register for the event after being notified that you have received a scholarship. Download the Fall BOW Registration Form (available at nhbow.com).

Being awarded a scholarship does NOT guarantee that you are accepted to the Fall Weekend or placement in specific classes. Space is limited and the program fills up fast.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER SCHOLARSHIP: Check here if you wish to be considered for a Mother-Daughter Scholarship (the daughter must be age 18 or older). Please note: to be considered, each mother and daughter must individually submit an application with this box completed and the required $25 deposit. Both may be in one envelope. Both will be considered for individual scholarships if not awarded the Mother/Daughter Scholarship.

Mother's name: _____ Daughter's name: _____

HUNTING AND FISHING SCHOLARSHIPS: Some donors have requested that their scholarship go to women interested in hunting and/or fishing. Please indicate your interest in: Hunting Fishing Both
(This does not guarantee you will be enrolled in specific classes.)

N.H. FISH AND GAME: Check here if you are a N.H. Fish and Game employee or family member.
